

www.jsicc.org

Jiangsu International Chamber of Commerce

美国江苏国际商会

Gene Bailey
Vice President of JSICC

Gene currently serves as President of the Fredericksburg Regional Alliance, a position he has held since April 1, 2000. He has conducted 31 international market missions since 1991, which focused on England, Europe, the Middle East, North Africa, the Caribbean, and the Pacific Rim including extensive travel in Japan, South Korea, Hong Kong, Taiwan with a focus on Mainland China. He also serves as the chief fundraiser for the Fredericksburg Regional Alliance, a public-private partnership, where he has helped raise over $8 million to promote regional economic development.

During his career, he has served as:

- A member of President Ronald Reagan's administration where he administrated federal regulatory policy over twelve southern states.
- A member of President George W. Bush's sub-cabinet (1989-1993) where he was confirmed by the U.S. Senate as an Assistant Secretary for Legislative Affairs.
- A Senior Lobbyist for the National Cotton Council of America in Washington, D.C.
- A U.S. Delegate in 1991 to International Trade Negotiations in Brussels.
- Chief of Staff to a member of Congress.
- Assistant County Administrator for Economic Development in Stafford County, Virginia.

Gene has a Master's Degree in Public Administration from George Mason University in Fairfax and a B.S. degree from James Madison University. He has extensive experience in legislative, public affairs, and international protocol gained during his 17 years in various positions in Washington, D.C. He also holds Professional Certification from the International Economic Development Council.

Jiangsu International Chamber of Commerce

美国江苏国际商会

www.jsicc.org

He is long-time resident of the Fredericksburg Region where he, his wife, Linda, and two children currently reside.